THE HIDDEN DISABILITY: UNDERSTANDING APHASIA

- Saturday, September 19, 2026
- 9:30am-1:30pm
- St. Luke's Warren Hospital
  185 Roseberry St., South Wing Entrance, Phillipsburg, NJ

FREE Caregiver Education Event recognizing unpaid caregivers across the lifespan

Schedule of Events:

- Caregiver Story
- Panel Discussion:
  - Meredith Gemeiner, Adler Aphasia Center
  - Courtney Carusso, Speech Pathologist specializing in Aphasia and Certified SPEAK OUT Provider
  - Amy E. Matthews, Dementia Consultant
  - Lorrie Koonz, Stroke Program Manager, Atlantic Health Systems
  - Marcia Guberman, Living with Parkinson's Disease and Parkinson's Foundation Board Member

Be kind to yourself and join us!

- Enjoy a complimentary breakfast and lunch provided by St. Luke's Warren Hospital
- Information and resources
- Door prizes

Registration is required by Monday, September 7. Email RobinEnnisLLC@gmail.com or call 908.866.1333. There is no respite care provided for this event.

Please note: Family caregivers provide an invaluable resource to their loved ones as well as to America. Their courage, compassion and dedication to family members, friends and neighbors allow the aging population and persons with disabilities and mental illness to remain independent.