DEFINITION OF A CAREGIVER:

- Unpaid family member, friend, neighbor, co-worker, etc.
- Full time, part time, long distance
- Become over time; become overnight
- From a check in call once a week to total personal care

ARE YOU A CAREGIVER:

- Do you provide care for an aging parent, spouse, sibling, friend, or neighbor, or child with special needs?
- Do you care for anyone with a mental illness, physical or developmental disability?
- Do you pick up medication at the pharmacy, make meals, provide help with daily care or with doctor's appointments, pay bills or grocery shop for anyone?

HOW CAN I ASSIST YOU

- Meet caregivers where they are in the stages of caregiving.
- Recognize that each caregiver experience is unique yet many share common experiences.
- Meet the diverse needs of each caregiver based on their unique caregiver experience.
- Help caregivers identify their needs and connect to resources, support, services, information and education.
- Support self-care for caregivers.

Coordinated Care of MetroWest

Provides assistance and supports individuals, families, and/or caregivers living in Greater MetroWest who are overseeing the lifetime care of adults with developmental or acquired disabilities. The program is designed to meet the unique needs of the individual and family no matter where they are in their journey. CCM ensures ongoing individualized and personal concern for such individuals with disabilities who may survive their caregivers or whose caregivers are not available to support them. They hope to provide peace to caregivers that someone is there to help when they are no longer here and most importantly, they focus on strengths and quality of life for the disabled adult. Services include:

- -Free phone consultation to connect you to local resources and provide emotional support
 - -Short term fee for service case management to assist with more specific needs and research
 - -Long term fee for service case management to ensure a thorough care plan for future planning that is forever evolving and changing.

Hearing loss is more than a matter of increasing volume. Studies show that hearing loss increases loneliness, isolation and can mimic signs of dementia. In one recent study, The Direct and Indirect Effects of Hearing Loss on Loneliness in Older Adults, authors found “direct and indirect pathways through which hearing loss contributes to loneliness in older adults. Poor hearing exacerbates functional limitations, depression, and cognitive decline, all of which can further increase the risk of loneliness.”

Fortunately, New Jersey has two programs to help residents afford hearing aids!

The Hearing Aid Assistance to the Aged and Disabled \(HAAAD\) program offers reimbursement for the purchase of hearing aids, for eligible residents age 65+. The New Jersey Hearing Aid Project offers free refurbished hearing aids for individuals that meet program eligibility. Become a Disaster Response Crisis Counselor

New Jersey is one of the first states to certify its behavioral health first responders in preparation for response to disasters and traumatic events. The development of a cadre of paraprofessionals enhances the capability of activating a timely and effective behavioral health response. A Disaster Response Crisis Counselor is a volunteer who becomes part of an Emergency Response Network and responds to the needs of communities in the event that a disaster strikes. The counselors are trained in disaster response, disaster behavioral health and crisis counseling among other topics and they collaborate with the various response partners who participate in the statewide emergency response network. The counselor does not need to have a clinical background as the crisis counseling program does not provide traditional mental health services. The training will provide the technical support and knowledge needed to become a Disaster Response Crisis Counselor emphasizing psychological first aid and information and referral services.

TRUALTA Resource for Caregivers: We've received word that a new service is available for residents of Monmouth and Middlesex Counties. Trualta is an extensive online library featuring caregiver training, articles of interest, support groups and chat rooms. It is accessible 24/7 from a person's phone, tablet or computer. Most of the videos and articles are short (5-7 minutes). This is an EXCELLENT resource. You have to register to access the platform. In addition to all the info in the library, you can attend live webinars and support groups. If you miss a webinar, you still have access to the recording. I've watched a few and found them to be excellent. I highly encourage you if you live in Monmouth or Middlesex to sign up. We are hoping that in the near future more counties will be offering this resource and will let you know as soon as we do.

Monmouth County Residents the website can be accessed from the county website www.monmouthadv.com in the Caregiver Section or directly on www.monmouth.trualta.com/.
